

written by Genelda Woggon illustrated by Alicia Jewell

A series of books for children ages 3-7 to prepare for and deepen their baptismal life

The Seed Of God

I'm happy to recommend this wonderful resource for Baptismal Ministry.

The Rev. Bud Holland Coordinator of Office of Ministry Development
Episcopal Church Center, New York, NY

These books, perfect for little hands, offer beautiful "Read-to-me" experiences for children sitting with their parent or grandparent. They are meditations with few words and simple drawings, but they will grow into a lifetime of thoughts, conversations, and prayer.

Tina Lillig
National Director
Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

The baptismal books, the Seed of God are a treasure. They are beautifully illustrated, offer a solid theology of baptism in language and images appropriate for the the young child and are books that the child will return to again and again.

Kate Dooley, OP
Catholic University of America

I often tell candidates for Holy Baptism that the day they are baptized is the most important day in their life. These booklets affirm the centrality of baptism and are invaluable tools for helping God's children both prepare for this rite and treasure its meaning for their Christian life. Genelda Woggon has written with care and grace about these holy mysteries....On behalf of the wider Church, I thank her for this gift.

The Rt. Rev. G. Porter Taylor
The Episcopal Diocese of Western North Carolina

3109 24th Street NE
Washington DC 20018
phone: 202-250-5905
email: cct@cctheo.org www.cctheo.org